

User Manual

General Information

CyberEd is a cybersecurity education service provider which is developed to help the high school students to enhance their knowledge and skills about cybersecurity. With a focus on comprehensive and interactive cybersecurity education, the Cybersecurity Education for High School Students online application is developed to provide high school students with an immersive learning experience.

Main features of the website

Features of the website

Getting Started

Users can create an account to get access to the system.

Online Quiz

User can test their knowledge by playing online quiz.

Word Puzzle

Word Puzzle game is available for users to test their skill.

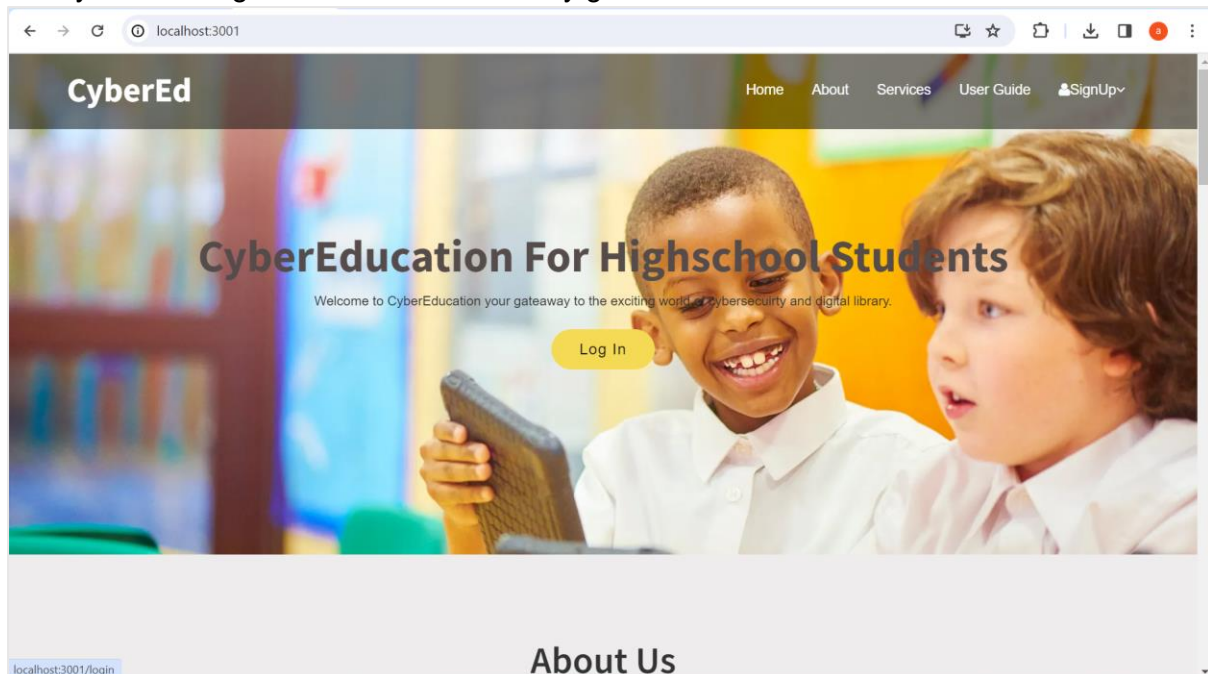

Learning Modules

There are numerous courses for users to explore and learn.

System Overview

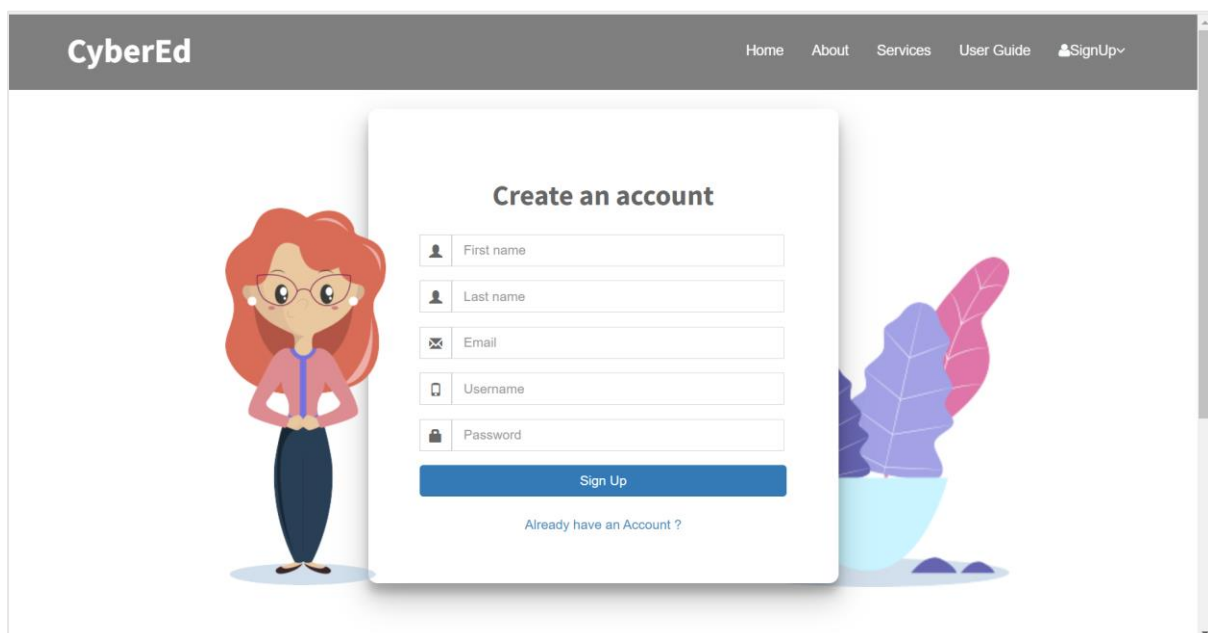

Landing Page

This is the landing page of the website. User can view all the details about the website and its benefits through this page. A proper navigation with all the necessary links are mentioned clearly in the navigation bar. User can easily get access to all those functional links.

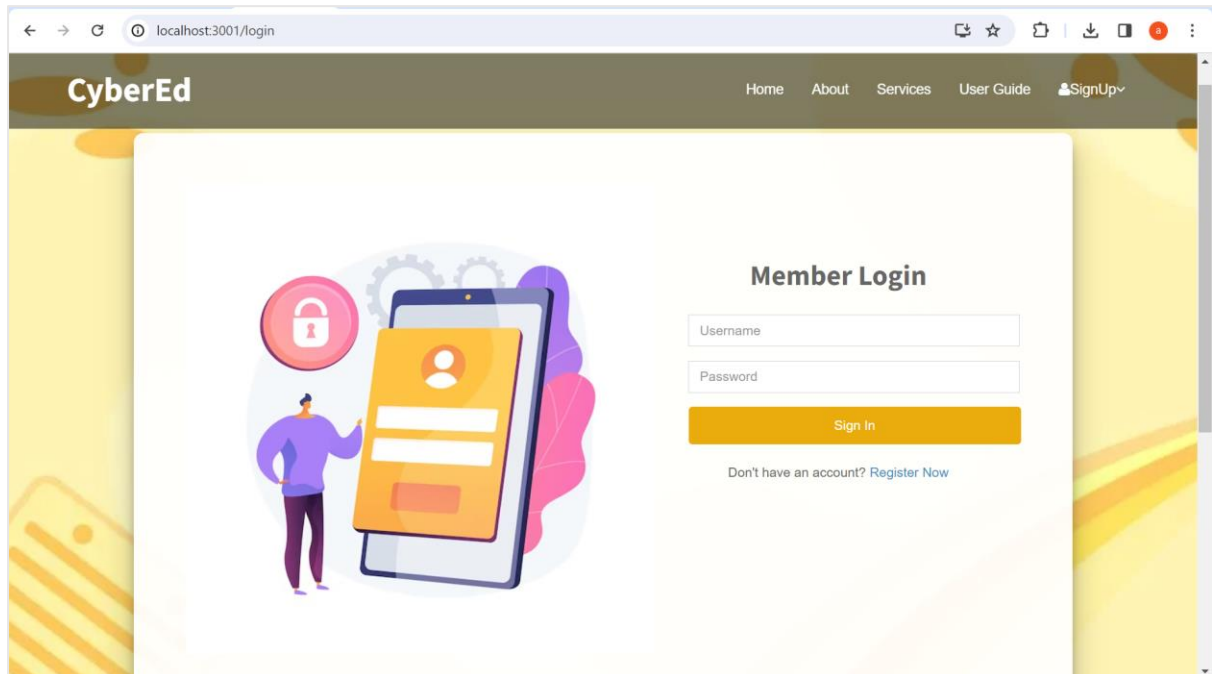

Signup Page

For a user to create a new account they can go to signup page and fill the necessary information. After filling all the information user can click in the signup button and can easily create an account within a minute.

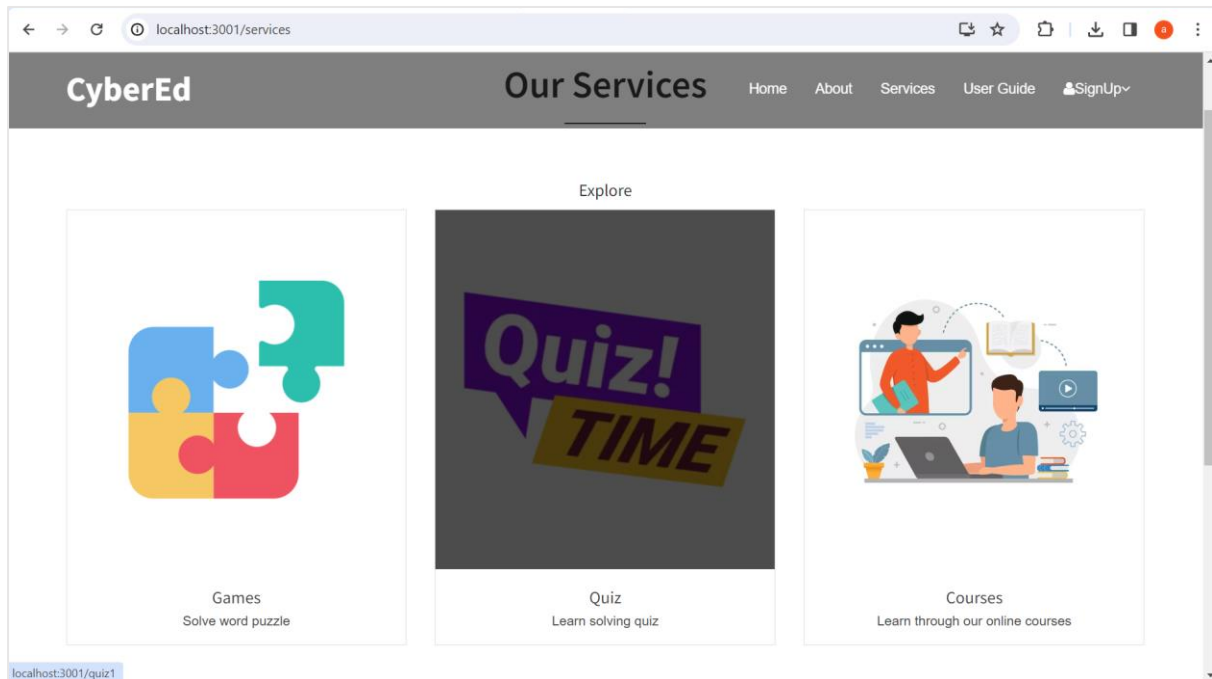

Login Page

After successfully creating an account, user are directed to the login page where they can enter their username and password created previously in order to verify the user. After the verification user can get access to the system and can enjoy the facilities provided by the system.

Services

This page will be the collection of the facilities that are provided to the user by the system. User can select any sorts of activities to get knowledge regarding cyber security. When the user selects the games feature, they are directed towards Word Puzzle game. Similarly, quiz option will lead them towards the online quiz which contain security related question. And at last, the course will lead them to the learning modules that will enhance the students' knowledge and skills.

Learning Modules

These are the few courses that will guide the students regarding security and their impact on their life.

